

Women's History Network

19th Annual Conference 2010

University of Warwick, 10 - 11 September 2010

Performing the self: Women's lives in historical perspective

CALL FOR PAPERS

Papers are invited for the 19th Annual Conference of the Women's History Network.

The idea that selfhood is performed has a very long tradition. This interdisciplinary conference will explore the diverse representations of women's identities in the past and consider how these were articulated. Papers are particularly encouraged which focus upon the following:

- Writing women's histories
- Gender and the politics of identity
- Ritual and performance
- The economics of selfhood: work and identity
- Feminism and auto/biography
- Performing arts
- Teaching women's history

Please send abstracts of no more than 300 words by 5th March 2010 to whnconference2010@googlemail.com. For more information please contact Dr Sarah Richardson, sarah.richardson@warwick.ac.uk, Department of History, University of Warwick, Coventry CV4 7AL.
